

Terms and conditions

Fantastic Pole & Sea Camp

Article 1 – generalities

These terms and conditions applied for the pole camps of Fantastic Pole & Sea Camp.

Article 2 - services

Fantastic Pole & Sea Camp offers the activities listed in the description of the event. Please refer to the section: “What is included”.

There are different prices according to your accommodation option.

If the conditions were not optimal, Fantastic Pole & Sea Camp reserves the right to replace some activities by different ones. If one instructor was unable to give the workshops, Fantastic Pole & Sea Camp reserves the right to find another instructor. This doesn't give right to reimbursement.

Fantastic Pole & Sea Camp doesn't include travel, transportation, visa, passport, insurances, drinks, extra activities and days of visit before and after the camp.

Article 3 - cancellations

If for any reason you need to cancel, you can try to find a substitute. Only administration fees of 150€ will be applied.

If you don't find a substitute, the following fees will apply to you:

- More than 90 days before the camp: 30% of the total cost
- Between 90 and 60 days before the camp: 50% of the total cost
- Less than 60 days before the camp: 100% of the total cost

You are responsible for canceling your own travel reservations.

Article 4 - force Majeure

Fantastic Pole & Sea Camp is not liable for any default, cancelation or delay in the realization of the camp, due to an event beyond its reasonable control (fire, flood, earthquake, elements of nature, government acts, war, riots, terrorism, civil disorders, rebellions, revolutions, strikes, labor difficulties, change of visa rights, weather, disease, etc.) Such events (but not limited) giving rise to the default, cancelation or delay of the camp don't give right to reimbursement.

Article 5 - covid

If our pole camp couldn't take place at the expected dates or if you couldn't come because of a travel ban due to covid-restrictions, we would refund you the amount paid, except for 150€ that we would give you as a voucher (without expiry date) for a future pole camp.

Article 6 - image rights

By registering to Fantastic Pole & Sea Camp, you authorize Fantastic Pole & Sea Camp team to make pictures and videos with you during the camp. This pictures and videos can be used for sportive, pedagogic and marketing reasons.

Article 7 - liability and insurance

Fantastic Pole & Sea Camp is not liable for any theft, loss, damage, accident or injury caused or suffered to persons or properties during the camp and classes. You must get your own travel, health and civil responsibility insurances against these risks.

Article 8 - no-show

No reimbursement will be made if you miss planned classes or activities during the camp.

Article 9 - parental authorization

You must be major or have parental authorization to participate to Fantastic Pole & Sea Camp. In case of injury or accident to a minor, your parents authorize Fantastic Pole & Sea Camp to take initiatives to help you.

Article 10 - payment

Your place will not be confirmed before the deposit payment. Full payment must be done before the beginning of the camp. If not, we reserve the right to refuse you at the camp.

Article 11 - planning

Fantastic Pole & Sea Camp reserves the right to change at any time the published program, the timing, activities and instructors if one or more were unable to come.

Article 12 - registration

To register, you must fill in the registration form online.

Once processed, you will receive an email with payment information. Your place will not be confirmed before an approval email and the full deposit payment.

Fantastic Pole & Sea Camp organizers reserve the right to refuse your registration if it feels that you may breach the terms and conditions here within.

Article 13 - rules of conduct

Fantastic Pole & Sea Camp reserves the right to remove you from the camp if you don't behave in a properly manner, resulting in another participants, organizer or staff members disturbance.